VOL. V. NO. 276.

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1899.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

KENTUCKY DERBY ENTRIES.

The recently closed Kentucky Derby, to be run in 1901, received a total of 145 entries as against 131 for the Derby of 1900. The Clark Stakes received 119 entries and the Kentucky Oaks 101, a very fine showing indeed. Many of the now unknown cracks of the future are no doubt embraced in the list of entries to the Derby here published. It is as follows:

The Kentucky Derby, for three-year-olds (foals of 1898); $5 to accompany the nomination; $15 to be paid May 1, 1900, $30 to be paid March 1, 1901; $100 additional to start. The value of the stakes to be $6,000, of which $700 to second and $300 to third. Colts to carry 122 pounds; geldings, 119 pounds; fillies, 117 pounds. Those not having won a three-year-old race of the value of $1,500 allowed 5 pounds; maidens, 12 pounds. One mile and a quarter.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

A long-winded and sensational article in yesterday's Cincinnati Enquirer in effect said that there would be no racing at Latonia next spring. The following dispatch from Secretary Ed Hopper seems to cover the case:

“COVINGTON, KY., November 15.—The article in the Enquirer of today in regard to the Latonia spring meeting is utterly without foundation. E. O. HOPPER, Sec'y.”

The conditions of the Coney Island Futurity to be run in 1902, which will be announced in a few days, have been changed materially.

Under the new order of things the yearling declaration has been moved back to November 1 instead of July 15, as heretofore. This will give the breeders who do not sell their yearlings until late in the season a chance to escape the penalty of keeping their nominations up after the date set for declaration.

The added money has been raised from $8,750 to $10,000, which, in combination with the new condition above, will likely increase materially the total value of the stake.

The weight conditions have also been changed. The weights for colts will range from 130 down to 117, with usual allowance for fillies and geldings. There will be a maiden allowance of only five pounds instead of ten, as heretofore.

The addition to the chute, or Futurity Course, will be finished next year, making the course a full six furlongs. As a consequence the conditions of the race have been changed so as to make the distance to be run six furlongs.—Morning Telegraph.

Don d'Oro has gone to the Nursery Stud of A. Belmont near Lexington, Ky. He is a chestnut horse, five years old, by Rayon d'Or—Bella Donna, by Hermit out of Bonnie Doon, by Rapid Rhone, her dam Queen Mary, by Gladiator, etc. He was a good racehorse and his breeding is attractive for a stallion.

OCTOBER AND OTHER FORM BOOKS.

The October books of Form Charts in paper covers will be on sale Wednesday, November 1, at noon. They will contain all the Form Charts of all tracks from October 1 to October 31 inclusive. Price $1. The soft morocco covered books will be on sale Friday, November 3. Price $1.50. The editions of both are limited. There are a few term-book sheets on hand and five morocco-covered volumes of charts from January 1 to June 30 inclusive on sale at $10.

DONE AT LAKESIDE.

The racing season, so far as Chicago is concerned, closed yesterday at Lakeside. The fields were—on paper—unusually large, but scratches were plentiful, and consequently the number of starters was not above the average despite the fact that it was “get-away day.”

Secretary Nathanson offered two handicaps—one at three-quarters of a mile and one at a mile.

The six furlong event furnished a cracker-jack of a race, but the mile handicap was a soft thing for Banish. Banish was heavily backed at about 2½ to 1 and won all the way. He got off flying, and from the time that the flag fell to the end there was never a bit of doubt as to which horse would win.

Banish was always in front and the further the field went the greater did he make his lead. Brownie Anderson finished second and Deering third.

The six-furlong handicap went to Maud Wallace. This filly was backed from 10 to 1 down to 8 to 1 and it is safe to say that her owners, Keith & Patton, “changed in” on her victory. The filly broke sixth and remained there to the three-quarter post. Then W. Scott cut loose, and passing Hugh Penny and O’Connell like they were tied, won quite handily.

Mr. H. Robinson was decidedly in it. He started two horses, Jim and Walkenshaw, and scored with both.

Walkenshaw was a 4 to 1 chance, with Uarda, Double Dummy and Tillie W. to beat, among others, and despite the strong support given him the public stuck to Double Dummy. However, Walkenshaw was “Hawkins’ Hoss” and he delivered the goods like a gentleman. He was always second and when the pinch came he passed the pacemaker, Uarda, like a sky-rocket.

After Walkenshaw won he was run up $300 over his entered price and bought in by his owner.

“Heck” Bloom, “Clem” Creveling and Mr. A. C. Clark must have “cleaned up” strongly over Hermoso’s win in the initial five and a half furlong race. For some reason Hermoso was a 5 to 1 chance, and as he won away off by himself with McIntyre whipping, it was, in track parlance, “a shame to take the money.” Little Jack Horner was second and Andes third to Hermoso.

Tom Hayes was not satisfied with winning two purses Tuesday, and to make sure of “winter money” he sent Red Cross II. to the post in the fifth race and had the pleasure of seeing him win a creditable race from Florinel II. and Olekma.

Jim performed a surprising feat when in the closing dash of a mile and a quarter he brought about the downfall of the top heavy favorite George Lee. It was about the best race Jim ever ran, and it may turn out that he will prove to be an extremely useful four-year-old next year.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Col. W. S. Barnes, the well-known breeder of Lexington, made the largest number of entries to the Kentucky Oaks, having nominated no less than eight fillies. He is a staunch advocate of stakes for fillies and shows his appreciation of them in a tangible fashion.

Barney Schreiber’s horses have been released from suspension by the Oakland authorities but the licenses of trainer Williams and jockey Ward have been recommended to the Turf Congress for revocation and the suspension of both is continued indefinitely.

J. A. Gosbel, St. Louis.—Place odds against Etta in race mentioned, 4 to 5.

A GREAT SALE.

The sale to be conducted by Messrs. Woodard and Shanklin, during the week of November 27, to December 2 at Lexington will likely prove one of the greatest they have ever held, judging from the quality of the consignments they announce.

Although there are more than 500 head to be sold, it is not merely a sale of a large number of thoroughbred horses, but in most cases horses of worth and such as will be eagerly bid upon by all who desire to strengthen their farms or stables.

The yearlings to be sold number in all 250 head, and they are the product of some of the most noted establishments in America. The list includes a number of brothers and sisters to the greatest of stake winners, and are represented to be an exceedingly valuable and choice lot. Certainly from such a large number (we believe the most ever offered in any one sale in this country), one should have no difficulty in picking a "good one," and doubtless many rare bargains will be secured.

The horses in training are about 100 head, including the wonderful trio, namely, Anna Bain, Unsightly and Merito, the "cracks" of 1899 two-year old fillies.

Serrano, the best aged horse of the West during 1899, will also be sold, as well as a most valuable contingent from the successful stable of Messrs. J. W. Schorr, including Algol (a high-class horse), W. Overton (stake winner), Streamers, Presbyterians (stake winner), The Rush, Wilson, Yoloco, Aberdale and others.
Mr. Eugene Leigh will dispose of his Western stable, including High Degree (a stake winner), Wiedemann, Mr. Brown, Zonne and other winners. Mr. W. H. McCorkle sends his entire string, Lightning Express, Fairy Dell, etc.
W. A. McGuigan send in addition Unsightly, also the good horses, Edinborough, Dick Furber, Benadier, Tulane, Deanston, Sarilla, Major Mansir and the great mare, Lady Inez. Apple-

Merito, Romanoff, Joe Grady, etc. Other consignments include Vohicer, Prince Real, Miss Gussie, Caviar and numerous other valuable and useful horses.

The 200 stallions, broodmares and weanlings to be sold are fully up to the high standard of other divisions of this great sale, and include both the sires and the dams of any number of the best of America's "racehorses."

It will be a sale that no horseman can afford to miss, for no matter what his wants may be he can be supplied from the 100 head to be sold.

Catalogues giving complete information will be ready November 18, and will be mailed only upon application to Messrs. Woodard & Shanklin. It will prove a useful study to any who are at all interested in the thoroughbred horse.

Winner—Ch. g. by Tom Sawyer—Flora Benge.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Sallie Lamar showed no speed.
Her race was far below the mark. Brighton went wide on every turn. He covered much more ground than the winner. Joe Bell hugged the rail all the way. Libation quit after going a half. Miss A. Farrow was stopping. It was a bad race to handicap from.

Overweights—Libation, 4 pounds.

Winner—Ch. c, by Sir Modred—Fidelity.
Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won whipped out; second and third driving to the limit; fourth the same. Hermoso is a quick breaker. This is mainly the cause of his victory. McIntyre was on the alert at the post and when the flag went down had all the best of it. As the race was run Little Reggie was the best. He was off badly and made up much ground. Andes was in hard luck. He was shut off a dozen times and everything considered ran a fine race. Chicopec liked the mud and was right there all the way. Theory's race must be thrown out. Uncas had plenty of speed and was fighting for the money all the way. Bertha Nell made up ground throughout. The muddy track was a handicap to Sim W. The Chemist showed speed for a short distance.

Scratched—15703 Pauline J., 100; 15701 Sam Lazarus, Esq., 103; 15703 Free Hand, 100; (15703) Evelyn Byrd, 100.

Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily at the end after an early drive; second and third doing their best. Walkenshaw was at home in the going and held the others safe all the way. Ralph's ride on him was a good one. He seemed to possess confidence all the way and never made a move until the stretch was reached; then he passed Uarda like a flash. Uarda showed a lot of speed and ran an improved race. Mitchell never made a move on Double Dummy. Throw his race out. Tillie W. seemed to labor in the going all the way.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden; there was much action behind the winner. Maud Wallace is truly a good mud runner. Her race was a fine one. She was weakly ridden, but not without this won like a filly of good class. O'Connell got an easy ride. Still, Lines probably thought he was doing right by placing the old horse, but, when he called upon him, he had nothing to respond with. In these days O'Connell is not as reliable as he might be. Hugh Penny displayed a fine turn of speed, but in the final quarter quit badly. He is old and cunning. From a bad beginning Refer ran a good race. Goebel did not run to the mark. Wiggins showed a flash of early speed, then stopped badly. Georgie ran a bad race.

Scratched—15725 Andes, 95; 15702 Nettie Regent, 80; 15533 David, 100; 15701 Canace, 96; 15725 Sim W., 95; (15646) May Beach, 104.

Winner—Ch. g, by Wadsworth—Glendelia.
Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily. It was a hard drive for second place. Banish broke from behind with a rush and had speed enough to take advantage of his good sendoff. He is strictly a mud lark and loves light weight. Brownie Anderson liked the going and ran a good, game race. She is a consistent filly. Deering was right there and fighting for the money all the way. Booker rode a bad race on The Monk. Volandies never had a chance to get to the front. This spoiled his chances as he always races best in the front ranks. Moroni has probably had too much of it and may be somewhat stale. The same comment applies to Boney Boy. Alice Turner can do better than this. So can Brolake on a dry track.

Off at the second break to a good start. Won in a hard drive; second and third doing their best. Red Cross II. ran a good, game race. He was in a bad position at the start and had to work his way through from the three-eighths post home. Mason rode a good race. Florinel II.

is not game. He darted and swerved all over the stretch. Lady Curzon got a flying start, showed fine speed, but when the pinch came she tired badly. Olekma did well. Speed in front is her forte, but in this instance she raced from behind. Antonietta got a bad ride. So did Tremble.

Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly. The next three were driving to the limit. Jimp was cleverly placed all the way through and ran a good race. George Lee began as slowly as usual, had no interference and finished with his usual great burst of speed. He is certainly a good horse in the mud and over a distance of ground. Chancery showed speed but not as much as he did when last out. Admetus ran a bad race. Bert Davis will not do in such company.

RACING FORM'S SELECTIONS.

DAILY RACING FORM has no private information. It seeks none. Its calculations over the horses as they are grouped daily at various racetracks are purely those of general performance and ability as shown by the records and the application and knowledge of its editors and the reports of its correspondents. These calculations are printed daily. Nothing is hidden. All that the staff of the paper knows is put into type. If the selections made nightly are sought by persons outside the daily delivery lines of the paper they will be sent by Western Union night rate messages (collect) at $5 per track per week. Such service is not solicited, but if it is considered valuable, will be performed.

1899 ANNUAL RACING FORM.

The first volume of 1899 Annual Racing Form, containing the charts from January 1 to July 1, 1899, in soft morocco covers, with a linen paper index lettered and reinforced for hard use, is ready for delivery. The Yearly costs $20. Volume 2 will be delivered to subscribers by January 5, 1900. The two volumes of the Annual will not be sold separately. There are a few special term books for sale on order, however.

THE AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL

The American Sporting Manual of 1899 is on general sale. It is a record of the turf, billiards, pugilism, trotting, pacing and all the leading lines of sport up to January 1, 1899. All the matter within its pages have been compiled and edited by experts. It prints a list of all the turf and track records (by DAILY RACING FORM's staff), billiard figures, past and present (by John Thatcher), the fights of 1898, with comments (by George Siler), harness records to date and of the past (by John Hervey, the statistician of The Horse Review) and three handicap tables, with directions for their application and expert comment. The Manual, in paper covers, sells at 30 cents and in soft morocco covers at 50 cents.

PEDIGREE BLANKS.

On linen paper, artistically edged in colors, ruled and arranged for six generations of sires and dams of individuals and their ancestor. Ten cents each, $1.00 per dozen, $3.50 per hundred. No owner of a stallion should be without a supply.

Winner—B. c. by Terra Cotta—Leonora.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. The first four finished in a hard drive. Russell R. was much the best. He was cut off on the backstretch and pinched in on the rail at the finish. Ransom took a big chance. Incidental ran a remarkable race for him. Croesus closed a big gap in the last quarter. Flop stopped when the crisis came. Lobengula could not get out of his own way. Russell R., place, 2 to 1; show, 4 to 5. Necklace, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Incidental, show, 15 to 1.

Winner—B. f. by Florist—Ella C.
Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second ridden out. Miss Shanley was much the best. She made several attempts to run away and in one break dragged the assistant starter a sixteenth of a mile. She is a cracky actor at the post. Troubaline ran in improved form. Isabinda finished fast and closed a big gap. Flora Daniels tired in the run.
Scratched—15613 My Butterfly, 99; 15555 Harvest Queen, 99.
Overweights—Marion Lynch, 24 pounds.
Miss Shanley, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Troubaline, place, 2 to 1; show, 4 to 5. Isabinda, show, 6 to 5. Flora Daniels, place, 9 to 10; show, 7 to 10.

Winner—B. b. by Albert—Montvale.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Albertville was best but had to be ridden out strongly to stall off Virgie O.'s rush. The latter appeared to be the winner at the head of the stretch, then she faltered, but came again under a vigorous ride. These were the only real contenders. Louisville Belle was away as if in a sprint race. Babe Fields fell at the sixteenth post the first time around.
Scratched—8129 Amy Lee, 101; 15656 Harry Preston, 88.
Overweights—Fresco, 2 pounds.

Winner—Ch. c. by Pardee—Outstep.
Off at the first break to an excellent start. The first five were driving. Molo ran an excellent race and is at his best. Souchon stayed better than usual. Skillman ran to his best form. The race seemed too much for Ed Tipton; though he ran much faster in Chicago. Creation was outclassed.
